LATEST FROM SHERMAN'S ARMY.

HE IS IN AN EXCELLENT POSITION. WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON,

Wednesday, June 8, 1864-12 noon. To Major General Dix, New York : A dispatch from Gen. Grant, dated yesterday afternoon, 3:05 p. m., reports: "All has been very quiet to-day. No casualties reported." A dispatch from General Sherman, dated at Acworth yesterday evening, 6.30 p. m., says: 41 have been to Altona Pass, and find it very admirable for our purpose. It is the gate chrough the last or most eastern spur of the Alleghanies. It now becomes as useful to us as it was to the enemy, being easily defended from either direction.

The roads hence (from Acworth) into Georgia are large and good, and the country more open." Details of the position of our troops and contemplated movements are given, but are not needed for public information. The despatch further states that " the enemy is not in our immediate front, but his signals are seen on Lost Mountain and Keneshaw."

Dispatches from Gen. Canby, dated June 3d, have been received, which report satisfactory progress in the organization of his command. EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

Official War Bulletin. Despatch from General Grant-Assault on

Burnside Repulsed-Correspondence between Grant and Lee. WASHINGTON, June 7-10.15 P. M.

To Mojor General Dix, New York : Despatches from headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, dated nine o'clock this morning, have been received. An assault was made on Burnside about midmight, and successfully repulsed. In the preceding afternoon a one hundred picket of the enemy made a rush to find out what was the meaning of Hancock's advancing siege line, and mine of the party were captured, and the rest killed or driven back. Several letters have passed between General Grant and General Lee in respect to collecting the dead and wounded between the two armies. General Grant, in the closing letter, regrets that all his enorts "for alleviating the sufferings of wounded men left on the battle-field have been rendered nugatory." Two rebel officers and six men sent out to search for the wounded of their commands were captured in consequence of the enemy not delivering General Lee's letter until after the hour he had named had expired. General Grant has notified General Lee that they were captured through a misunderstanding, and will not be held as prisoners, but will be re-

No other military intelligence received. EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

S. D. & H. W. SMITH'S AMERICAN ORGAN. Among the different inventions originated and perfected by American ingenuity during the past twenty years, few are more surprising than the improvement in musical instruments, especially in reed instruments, known as "REED ORGANS," HARMONIUMS and MELODEONS. European taste has long seemed to have been satisfied with the Organs of Alexandre and Pleyel, although neither of those instruments afford much real variety of tone, notwithstanding the makers have multiplied stops and sets of reeds, and by consequence the cost, to an extraordinary degree. The American Organ, made by S. D. & H. W. Smith, Boston. may safely challenge comparison with either of them, whether as regards variety, power and sweetness of tone, or cost.

All reed instruments made by the best manufacturers in this country are constructed on the same principle, viz: of drawing the air through the reeds by an exhaustive bellows, instead of jorcing it through them by powerful pressure, and the "American Organ" differs from its competitors mainly in three points: 1st, the great care and thoroughness exercised in manufacture; 2d, in the skilful voicing, giving as many different qualities of tone as there are sets of reeds; and 3d, in the use of a reverberating box, which adds materially to the power of the instrument without detriment to its delicacy and sweetness. Any person possessing a musical box can readily appreciate this improve-ment by setting it while in operation on a mantel or table, and then on a large empty box or barrel, and observing its vastly increased power and richness when in the latter position.

In these three points—and they are certainly material ones—is superiority claimed by the American Organs of Messrs. S. D. & H. W. SMITH over the read instruments of other makers. The Messrs. Smith being the most experienced Reed Organ makers in Boston (having established them selves in 1852) and having at least equal facilities with any other makers, have always kept themselves familiar with all improvements and inventions in their department, and they confidently assert their "American Organs" to be unequalled in voicing, and unsurpassed by any, at home or abroad, in purity, sweetness and power of tone. The contrivance for producing varied expression, such as the "treble forte," tremolo and the swell, and the ease with which change of stops may be made, render the American Organ, in skillful hands, capable of as much delicacy of expression and variety of effect as the expensive Harmoniums of Alexandre with their thirteen registers, and and observing its vastly increased power and rich-and variety of effect as the expensive Harmoniums of Alexandre with their thirteen registers, and while undoubtedly far superior in durability, is sold for less than half the cost.

The demand in England for Smith's American Organ is steadily increasing, and is an irrefragable proof that it triumphantly stands the test of competition in their own market with the most celebrated European instruments.

JOHN F. ELLIS, 306 Pennsylvania avenue, between 9th and 10th streets, is the sole agent for these instruments; and at his rooms can always be found a complete stock.

HUNTER IN POSSESSION OF STAUNTON! WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON CITY,) Wednesday, June 8, 1864-1.30 p. m. To Major General Dix, New York:

A dispatch from Mr. Dana, at General Grant's Leadquarters, dated last night at 8.30 p. m., announces a victory by General Hunter over the rebels beyond Staunton, and that the rebel General Jones was killed on the battle-field. The dispatch is as tollows:

4 O'CLOCK P. M.

Official Bulletin by Secretary Stanton.

THE REBEL GENERAL W. E. JONES KILLED

" Richmond Examiner of to-day speaks of the defeat of Gen. W. E. Jones by Gen. Hunter, twelve miles beyond Staunton, Virginia. Gen. Jones was killed on the field. His successor retired to Waynesboro', and now holds the mountains between Charlottesville and Staunton. The paper further states that no hospital stores were captured by Hunter." Another dispatch announces that our forces occupy Staunton.

Hunter's victory, and that our troops occupy Staunton, is confirmed by the following dispatch, just received from Gen. Butler: "All quiet on my line. Richmond papers of June 7th give intelligence of a fight at Mount

Crawford between Gen. Hunter and Gen. Jones, in which Hunter was victorious, and Jones, rebel commander, was killed. Staunton was afterwards occupied by the Union forces. The fighting was on Sunday. EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

CONGRESSIONAL. XXXVIIITE CONGRESS .- FIRST SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, June 8. Mr. Davis rose to a question of privilege and read a letter from Gen. Benj. F. Butler addressed to himself, dated headquarters in the field, June 3, 1864, as follows: SIR: I have read your resolution of inquiry

You can do me no greater tayor than to have every act of my political life, which began on the first Tuesday of November, 1839, and ended on the 15th day of April, 1861, most thoroughly scrutinized. I will thank you also to have every act of my official life, which began as brigadier general of the Massachusetts militia April 16, 1861, and will end when this war does, if not sooner subjected to the like examination. I have ne favors to ask, and but one act of justice-that the inquisition may not be ex parte; that is, one sided. Your obedient servant,

BENJ. F. BUTLER.

Mr. Davis said this letter was in terms such as any man conscious of his innocence would use. The terms of the letter were calculated to increase his estimation of Gen. Butler, as they make an appearance of prima facie evidence in his favor. Gen. Butler may be innocent of the charges contained in his (Mr. Davis) resolution. He had no personal prejudice against that General, and if he was innocent, he would be gratified to find it so, as he would of any one else; and he thought every man should have the opportunity to prove his

General Butler has of course read the reso lution and writes his letter in view of its character. The resolution calls for a committee of three to be appointed by the Chair to investigate, and with power to send for persons and papers. He understood General Butler therefore to have accepted the gauge just in the form it has been tendered. As a Senator and a man he felt perfectly competent to do Gen'l Butler justice, according to the truth of his case. He therefore hoped the Senate would at once pass the resolution without debate, and authorize proceedings with matter in the manner desig-

BALTIMORE, June 8 .- The Convention reassembled at ten o'clock, President Dennison in Prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Gladdis delegate from Hamilton county, Ohio.

rules to control the Convention in the transaction of its business; which were read, amended and adopted. Mr. King, of New York, chairman of the committee of credentials, reported, that after patiently investigating the claims of every State, the Missouri radicals were admitted, and the Arkansas delegation admitted to seats, without permission to vote. The South Carolina delegation were not admitted. The delegates from the District of Columbia were admitted to seats, without the right to vote.

The report of the minority was presented by Mr. Stevenson, of West Virginia.

The report of the majority was concurred in, except so far as it excluded delegates from Virginia, Arkansas, and the territories of Colorado, Nevada, and Nebraska, from the right of voting. The portion of the majority report so far as related to the uncontested delegation was adopted. Mr. King, chairman of the committee, moved to amend the report so far as related to the Missouri Delegation, known as the Uncondimissouri Delegation, known as the Uncondi-tional Union Delegation, "that they be admitted with the radical delegation, and where the two delegations agree they cast the vote of the State, and where they do not agree the State should not vote." The Convention then voted on the main question of Mr. King's amendment to the majority report, to admit both delegations, with authority to vote where they can agree, and A VICTORY BY GEN. RETURNING HOME.—The steamer Cossack rrived about noon to-day, bringing up the 2d Rhode Island regiment, whose term of service expired Monday. This regiment came out in June, 1861, and was for a short time encamped near Gales' Woods, after which they encamped on the Seventh street road, and built Fort Slocum. They came out with full ranks, 1,040 officers and men, and have since received numerous recruits, conscripts, &c., and during the time over two thousand have been in the ranks, and out of the entire number there are about 250 remaining, the other having been killed, wounded and discharged. After the regiment started for home seven of them were killed or wounded, having been picked off by rebel sharpshooters. About 100 re-enlisted men were left behind. This regiment has been attached to the 4th brigade, 2d division, 6th corps, and is now under command of Major Jenks, (Lt. Col. Reed being at home in Rhode Island, having been wounded in the Wilderness.) Their tattered and torn flags evidence the many hard-fought battles they have engaged in. But three of the original officers are now with the regiment. They expect to leave for home to-

AFFAIRS IN GEORGETOWN-The Coal-heavers Strike.—The various coal companies were without laborers at their docks all day yesterday; the laborers having struck for higher wages the day before. The agents immediately sent to the various centrahand quarters, and obtained new gangs to work for the same wages the strikers refused—$1.50 per day. The gangs are not as numerous as required, but will be reinforced to-day. This morning some of the old gangs went to the docks and proposed to go to work again, but were peremptorily or-dered away by the agents.
